

Facts & Figures

Attendance data and audience demographics

The leading gathering for African and global mining leaders

Since 1994, Investing in African Mining Indaba has been the key event for mining professionals, investors and industry leaders. Focused on economic growth and sustainability, it facilitates networking, deal-making and discussions on innovation, sustainable practices and investment in Africa's mining sector. The 2026 event showcased major successes, highlighting groundbreaking deals, industry advancements and the future of mining in Africa.

Number of meetings as part of business matchmaking

Global Investors
+35% vs MI25

Activation rate of the MI26 app
vs 69% for 2025

